Airprake was the feature of the stock market yesterday. Kuha Bros. bid it up at the last call to 129½, without getting a share.

There were no sellers. It was rumored 150 was bid on the street. The advance, as previously stated, is based on expectations of a 160 per cent dividend. There was also talk of a stock dividend in addition, but this was questioned by some.

Exports of gold from New York for the week ending Saturday, as officially reported at the Custom House, were $7,282,500, of which $8,860,000 went to Germany, $250,000 to London and the rest to the West Indies; of sliver $327,619, nearly all to London. AN EXODUS TO EUROPE.

Pittsburgers Who Find It Much Cheaper Than Staying at Home, The rush to Europe this summer is some thing remarkable. In the history of ocean traffic the travel was never so heavy. A gentleman stated yesterday that he knew of at least 150 families in Pittsburg who had either gone or were going shortly. All sorts of reasons are given by people Euro-pean bound. A few have never been abroad, and they are going to see the country. Strange to say, many advance the argument Strange to say, many advance the argument that it is cheaper to spend the summer in Europe than to remain at home, or put in the time at some watering place where fancy prices are charged. Heads of families with an eye to business state that they start out with empty trunks and the clothes on their backs. The fare is not high, and the cost of living in the Old World is very cheap, if one knows how to manage it. As soon as the family acrives in London or Paris, the wardrobes of the members are replenished. It is claimed by some that they save enough in buying their clothes to almost pay the expenses of the trip. Of course they have been preparing for the journey a year or more by nef buying anything, except what was absolutely needed. On the other hand, European sharks like nothing better than a sleek and well-fed American to pluck. Those who make it a business of going abroad advise greenhorns that they have much to learn about foreign methods, and they may be fleeced the first time, but if they persevere, their Yankee shrewdness will soon outwit the Continental vultures.

L. D. Humphrey, a Boston wool buyer, is registered at the Monongahela House. "The question is," he said yesterday, rereceive if they had to compete directly with the pauper labor of Europe? Many of our laborers have emigrated from the Old World, and they settled here, because they could better their condition. They never would have come unless America offered advantages to them, and I notice that not more than one in ten thousand ever returns. The intelligent men know that the tariff has nothing to do with these wage discussions. The tariff can't check the greed and grasping disposition of capital or labor, and the only way to get along is for both sides to come together in a spirit of fairness. Whether the policy of the country is tariff or free trade, there will always be trouble for 50 barrels a day. over signing scales. If Cleveland is nomi-nated he will be badly beaten."

Highest in camp discipline, Governor's Guard, Denver.

Thomas Neill was brought up in a London court to answer to the charge of attempting to extort money from Dr. Joseph Harper, of Barnstaple. It is alleged that Neill, who claims to be a doctor and the representative in London of G. H. Harvey, a drug manufacturer of Saratoga, N. Y., wrote under the name of Murraya letter to Dr. Joseph Harper, accusing him of being responsible for the deaths of Alice Marsh and Emma Shrivell, having poisoned those girls with strychnine, and offering to surrender the proof for money. When the case was first reported it was supposed to be merely a case of blackmail, but it is now believed Neill was concerned in the killing of the two other girls, Ellen Dodsworth and Matida Clover, whose deaths are known to have been caused by strychnine.

NO SEABOARD LINE TO BE BUILT.

Production of McDonald Pell Off 500 Barrels

Still another scheme has been sprung on that has been broached thus far. It is simply a consolidation of all of the independent pipe lines in the oil regions. For some time past reckless cotemporaries have been publishing reports of pipe lines which were to be built by syndicates from nearly every country except possibly China. English syndicates, French syndicates, German syndicates, indeed, syndicates from nearly every European country were reported at various times to be preparing to pounce down upon Pittsburg and its surrounding oil territory, and carry it away bodily. None of these syndicates has yet materialized.

The construction of the independent lines was started some time ago. They do not contemplate a line to the seaboard but only intend to connect their lines and bring them under one general system. This can be easily done by forming a stock company and each independent owner will receive so much stock in the company for his property. nearly every country except possibly China

The Producers' Pipe Line Company, the business end of the P. P. A., has a line from the McDonald field to Coraopolis. It does not seem able to handle, or rather dispose, of its oil after getting it to Coraopolis. A Great Drawback to the P. P. A.

This is the one great drawback with this line. The managers are now after an outlet, and they hope to get it by co-operating with the other pipe lines and refineries which are not identified with the Standard. To form this combination they will probably build a line to connect the Producer's line with those in the upper fields.

They do not contemplate, however, a line to the seaboard. It would be almost impossible for them to get to Bayonne, N. J., as a cotemporary published some time ago, as New Jersey has no pipe line laws, and the least opposition will block any attempt to run a line through that State.

Mellon's line, or rather the Crescent, in the southern part of the State will carry all the crude oil, which the independent producers will want to transport to the seaboard.

To build a line from the southwest to the This is the one great drawback with this ducers will want to transport to the seaboard.

To build a line from the southwest to the upper country and thence to the seaboard would be suicidal, as the Standard discovered several years ago. It had two lines from the upper country to the coast, and was pumping oil from Pittsburg and vicinity, to Colegrove in McKean county, and thence to tidewater. This was too expensive, and to reduce the cost, one of the lines was moved to the southern part of the State.

Some of the independent lines in the upper country are the Elk Pipe Line Comnany;
the Emery Pipe line, and the Charles Miller, while in the Southwest the Producers, and the Crescent will make an attempt to cover all of the territory possible.

THE TRADE OUTLOOK.

Pittsburg's Drygoods Business in a Prosperous Condition.

A GREAT RUSH FOR SUMMER GOODS.

Garden Products Are Making Up for Lost Time in the Spring.

OFFICE OF THE DISPATCH,
PHYSBURG, TUESDAY, June 21.
Everything in the line of garden stuff has been backward this season owing to the cold, wet spring. In general the products of the garden in this section are three weeks behind the average time. In the past week or two rapid strides have been made and it now looks as if the lost time would be fully made up. Under the influence of hot weather and timely showers there has been an extraordinary growth since summer fairly started. The gardens around Pittsburg are now after so long a time in splendid shape, and the yield both as to quality and quantity promises to be a full average. An old-time Neville Island erage. An old-time Neville Island gardener in an interview to day had this to say of the outlook: "I have never seen garden stuff come forward as rapidly as it has done the past week or two. The ground was wet, and the extremely hot June weather, accompanied with light showers, has brought everything forward in a wonderful manner. Everything in my garden looks first-rate. Tomatoes will be somewhat late, but the condition of plants is all

An untimely storm in the early spring, which covered the branches of the fruit trees with ice proves to have been a blight to the fruit crop in this section. Certain it is that fruit will be much dearer the comfruit growing regions on the Eastern shore the same conditions prevail as here. Under the influence of the declining prospects for fruit, canned and dried fruits which have been unusually dull since the beginning of the year, already give signs of animation and jobbing prices are already advanced. A Healthy Drygoods Business, The wholesale drygoods trade of Pittsburg was never in better shape at this sea-son of the year than it is at present. A representative of one of the leading firms of city had this to say in an interview toof May and June has been fully 10 per cent larger than for the corresponding period of last year. The rush for light summer goods and notions the past week or two has been unprecedented. Light colors in the line of domestic goods have the lend this season

Fancy dress goods are a shade higher this season than last under the operation of the increased tariff, but increased cost has made no impression on volume of trade. Fall orders for flannels and blankets have been coming in freely of late, and all signs point to a still heavier trade in the fall than we had in the spring and summer. Fall goods do not usually move freely till the latter part of July, but we have now orders nough on our books to insure a brisk trade through the last quarter of the year. In the line of gent's furnishing goods the same activity is reported as on dry goods lines.

The Chicago macker hide market is not by any means in the condition fondly hoped and prayed for. While many tanners agreed to stop wetting hides, no restriction was placed on their buying. In consequence, the Chicago packers have not only been selling quite freely, but have been refusing to take orders for late kill until their spring hides are cleaned up. Orders for several carloads of hides are not infrequent. Country hides are slow and somewhat neglected. Receipts, however, are not oppressive; this tends to sustain values.

WHEAT TRADING LIGHT.

The Market Dull and Weaker-A Fair Business in Corn, Closing Quiet-Oats Flucnations Rather Narrow - Provisions Steady and Advance Slightly.

CHICAGO-The trading in wheat was ather light and the market dull most of the other light and the market dull most of the session. The feeling was weaker and prices averaged lower. The opening was about to to to be lower than the closing figures of yesterday, and eased off to or so more; then improved, prices advancing about to; ruled easy, and the close was to lower than yesterday. Operators did not manifest much desire to trade.

In corn there was a very fair speculative business, the market ruling quite active during the first half of the day, but later in the session ruled more quiet. Initial trades were at 1/3/2 decline, but the market ralled soon afterward, a good many buying orders coming in, which put the price up 1/2 life; reacted later, selling off to. Market then sold up 1/3/2 c. changed some, and closed with July a shade higher and September with a 3/2/2 gain.

Outs—Prices changed on a 1/2 range. The opening was steady at about the lowest prices, then advanced 1/2/2/2, receded 1/3/2 le, rallied and closed 1/2 better than yesterday.

The current number of the Chicago Hide and Leather has this to say of the situation of leather and hides:

The sole leather situation is becoming very unteresting. The burdensome surplus has been reduced, and holders of hemlock, union and oak sole are feeling firmer in their views. Some buyers placed contracts in good senson for supplies of bottom stock. Those who doubted the resolution of tanners to curtail production, postponed purchases and now find that it is less easy to obtain concessions in selections and prices. It is believed that foreign buyers are not too well symples.

FRAUD IN FIRE CRACKERS.

Why Uncle Sam Will Offer a Job Lot at Auction Soon. NEW YORK, June 21.-[Special.]-Carl Von Pustow, importer and custom house broker, and his partner Otto Schraeider, and John Fortman, their shipping clerk, were arrested in April charged with paying Edward Simons, an assistant weigher in the public stores, to underweigh a large importation of firecrackers which arrived on the steamship Austria on November 20 last. Von Pustow was on trial to-day before Judge Benedict and a jury in the United States Circuit Court. was Fortman, the clerk, who gets $12 a week. He said that he met Simons in the street a few days before the arrival of the Austria and had some conversation with him. Simons broached the subject of underweighing the 4,344 packages of fire crackers. Simons intimated that he fire 'crackers. Simons intimated that he would underweigh the goods if the right thing were dene by him. Fortman reported this conversation to Mr. Von Pustow, who made no reply. Simons has given Fortman a memorandum slip on which was written the true weights of a portion of the packages of fire-crackers and the "allowances" he would make in weighing them. Fortman afterward destroyed.

portion of the packages of fire-crackers and the "allowances" he would make in weighing them. Fortman afterward destroyed this paper. The witness then told of paying two sums of money to Simons.

Simons admitted his guilt on the witness stand, and went into the details of the fraud. The foreign value of the fire crackers in Von Pustow's invoice was $14,075.55, the duties $18,224.64, and the home value, $32,300.19. The lot was seized and will be sold at auction in the Federal Building some time before July 4.

POINTS IN Bearing of Recent Transactions Upon the Future of the Market.

THE GREAT NORTHSIDE ARTERY. Viewers Finishing Their Work, Which Will Probably Be Approved.

The realty market is active for the season speculative activity and not of investment interest. Not for years has there been more hard cash ready for investment in lands and houses as at present. Several transactions of more than ordinary interest have been closed within the last few days, and others of equal magnitude are pending. These movements indicate in a general way the disposition of capitalists and their confidence in realty as an investment. They also point to a good market in the future. Becaut also have not been confined to any particular district, but have been well scattered, showing that all localities are prospering.

Begins to Look Like Business.

Preliminary work for the improvement of Perrysville avenue on the Northside is progressing. Viewers are now engaged in assessing benefits and damages, and expect to complete their labors in a few days. No special opposition to their report is looked for, as the people are anxious to have the matter settled, so that actual work can go forward. The widening of this thoroughfare as contemplated will have a stimulating effect upon all lines of business in that quarter, but upon none more than real estate. It will open up to settlement a large extent of territory, which is at present unavailable by reason of its inaccessibility, and being a natural outlet for the city, it will be in great favor with people contemplating the erection of rural homes. There are a number of building schemes on as contracts for the improvement of the avenue are let.

Practically Out of the Market.

The prospect for selling the M. E. Church property, corner of Smithfield street and Seventh avenue, is very remote. Some months ago it was placed in the hands of W. A. Herron & Sons for sale, but no satisfactory offer being received, it was withdrawn, and is now practically out of the market. A member of the congregation said yesterday, "For one I am decidedly opposed to parting with this property. It is the cradle of Methodism in Pittsburg. Its sale for business purposes would leave the central part of the city without a church of our denomination." It is understood the best offer for the property was about $3,000 a foot front.

Scored a Success. Practically Out of the Market.

Scored a Success. The auction sale of lots in Mayfield on Monday last was a decided success. About 1,300 people took advantage of the free dinner, free concert, free tickets, and beautiful shade in Mayfield grove. About 1 o'clock shade in Mayfield grove. About 1 o'clock Major A. J. Pentecost, the auctioneer, took his stand, and by 4 olclock 27 lots were knocked down to the highest bidder, prices ranging from $450 to $2,000. John K. Ewing & Co., agents for the Mayfield plan, deserve great credit for the way the sale was conducted; they expect to have another about July 1. Three or four well-known contractors are hustling for the $300 premium offered to the sonyer completing the first house. Several of the purchasers bought as an investment, but the majority bought to improve at once. Mayfield possesses many attractions for home-seekers. It is on the line of the Perrysville avenue electric road.

Yesterday's Building Permits. Ten permits were issued vesterday for 29 improvements, all estimated to cost $40,580. The most important are: J. F. Gahnster, two frame dwellings on Rural avenue, Nineteenth ward, $3,600; Louis H. Vogel, four brick dwellings on Webster street, Eleventh ward, $8,800; Paul & Alberts, two frame dwellings on Athell dwellings on Atwell street, Twenty-first ward, $1,500; C. Siebert, six stone and brick dwellings on Butler street, Eighteenth ward, $9,000; C. G. Hussey & Co., nine brick dwellings on Second avenue, Four-teenth ward, $13,500. Special Features of Brade. There is an active movement in Baldwin township realty, due to the prospect of rapid transit at an early day. The bulk of the property on Federal street, Allegheny, belongs to estates. This ex-plains the absence of building enterprise in that quarter. Several Improvements are in contemplation, however. Dressed poultry is in fight supply and good demand at prices quoted. As was foretold in this column a week ago, to-day's foretold in this column a week ago, to-day's receipts of strawberries were the largest of the season, and the lowest price of this season was reached. A fair quality was sold at 5 and 6c per box, and choice were sold at 8c per box. Those who fail to lay up in the next few days the berries needed for winter's use will miss their opportunity. New Southern potatoes are coming in freely, and prices are lower. Tropical fruits continue to move freely, and choice lemons are particularly active and firm.
